About

Infatuation: The Ultimate Rod Stewart Tribute

Infatuation is the premier national Rod Stewart tribute show, a high-octane celebration of one of music's most enduring and charismatic rock and roll icons. Based in the St. Louis, Missouri area, this remarkable 8-piece band features a roster of the region's top-tier musicians, coming together to perfectly recreate the look, the voice, the swagger, and the unforgettable sound of a live Rod Stewart concert.

The Voice and The Vision

The show is powerfully fronted by Tim Levene, an accomplished performer who has mesmerized audiences across the United States with his spot-on portrayal of Sir Rod. Known for his authentic vocal tone and incredible stage presence, Tim, who formerly performed a similar tribute under the moniker "Robb Stewart," has elevated his show by assembling the absolute finest St. Louis-based talent. This all-star lineup provides the sophisticated musical backbone required to honor the diverse and timeless catalog of Rod Stewart.

🎶 A Journey Through Timeless Hits

Infatuation’s show is an electrifying journey that spans Rod Stewart’s entire 50-year career, covering everything from his early rock and folk roots to his signature pop-rock anthems and later classic standards. The band’s extensive setlist ensures that every fan hears their favorite hit, recreating the signature blend of mandolins, strings, saxophones, and driving rock energy that defines Stewart's music.

The band’s performance includes all of Rod Stewart's biggest radio and chart-topping hits, such as:

Maggie May

Hot Legs

Forever Young

Do Ya Think I'm Sexy?

Tonight's the Night (Gonna Be Alright)

Sailing

Rhythm of My Heart

Young Turks

The First Cut Is the Deepest

Have I Told You Lately That I Love You

...and many more, delivering the complete, high-energy Rod Stewart experience.

Infatuation doesn't just play the music—they recreate the magic. This tribute is the ultimate Rod Stewart experience, perfect for theaters, festivals, casinos, and corporate events across the nation, guaranteeing a nostalgic and exhilarating night for fans of all ages.
