

Alive She Cried

About

The Doors Experience - Alive She Cried is hailed by critics and fans as one of the most exciting and authentic sounding Doors tribute bands in the world. Featuring David Davas as Jim Morrison, Alive She Cried has mesmerized arenas, theaters, festivals, and venues in spellbound excitement. With the incorporation of a prodigious psychedelic light and video show it's a spectacle that stimulates the senses like no other. Utilizing vintage equipment such as the Gibson G101 organ and Rhodes Piano Bass, the haunting sound produced by The Experience in replication of both live cuts and studio recordings will excite the senses in an echo of The Doors eclectic sound. Davas's voice and portrayal is uncanny, encompassing all the sexuality, charisma, and shamanistic enchantment of Morrison's crooning poetic performances. Featuring complete album shows, rarities, and live standards, the band on occasion replicates complete full concerts.
