Not The Killers

Tribute to The Killers

About

Not The Killers are the ultimate celebration of one of the greatest modern rock bands of our time. Born in Los Angeles and now based in Phoenix, this powerhouse tribute act delivers the shimmering synths, explosive hooks, and unbridled joy that defined The Killers' sound—recreating the energy, look, and spirit of the originals with uncanny precision. Their frontman, affectionately known as Not Brandon Flowers, channels the voice, swagger, and charisma of the real deal so convincingly that audiences can't help but do a double take.

Since hitting the stage in 2020, Not The Killers have electrified crowds across Southern California and beyond with high-octane performances packed with every hit—from the euphoric rush of "Mr. Brightside" and the gritty swagger of "Somebody Told Me" to the anthemic roar of "When You Were Young." Every show is a full-scale party—an immersive, euphoric experience that feels like you've stepped into an arena on The Killers' world tour.

For fans who crave that unmistakable mix of heart, nostalgia, and dancefloor euphoria, Not The Killers deliver the next best thing to seeing the originals live—pure, adrenaline-charged tribute perfection.
