

AMERICAN RIDE A TRIBUTE TO TOBY KEITH LONG ISLAND NY

American Ride: A Tribute to Toby Keith for high-energy live events

About

American Ride is a six-member tribute to Toby Keith, based in West Babylon, New York. The band plays country and country rock and is currently booking future dates for venues and events.

American Ride is a high energy tribute that sounds authentic and brings back Toby Keith, as well as patriotism and love to this country. The live performance focuses on Toby Keith's familiar hits, including "Courtesy of the Red, White, and Blue," "American Soldier," "Beer for My Horses," and "Should've Been a Cowboy."

The band has six members. American Ride describes its sound as authentic, with seasoned musicians bringing many years of experience to the performance.

American Ride has played Smithtown Theater, The America First Warehouse, Oyster Fest, Oyster Bay, Sayville, Islip La Grange Festival, and Lynbrook Greyer Park. The band plays about 200 shows a year, with typical sets running 1.5 to 3 hours.
