The Sugar Plums

Classic & Modern Holiday Music with a Touch of Retro Flair

About

The Sugarplums have captivated audiences nationwide with their charming choreography, engaging interaction, and harmonies so sweet they may give you a toothache! Their performances feature all of your holiday music favorites, ranging from beloved classics like “White Christmas” as performed by The Drifters, to upbeat and lively renditions like "Jingle Bells" as performed by The Puppini Sisters and Michael Bublé. The group's signature style is a blend of classic and modern, with a touch of retro flair that appeals to music lovers of all ages. From Hollywood to New York, from Canada to the Village of Lights: Christmastown in Washington, find out why audiences fall head over heels for these dazzling darlings of the holiday music scene!
The Sugarplums were the 2020 Winners of the Christmas Caroler Challenge, a national singing competition on the CW!

With charming choreography and engaging audience interaction, their show features all your holiday music favorites, happily sung by a trio of girls so sweet they'll give you a toothache!

The Sugarplums are available for shows, concerts, tree lightings & a cappella caroling for your public, private or corporate event.
