

Black Sabbitch

Tribute to Black Sabbath

About

Black Sabbitch is a Los Angeles Black Sabbath tribute band with more than a decade of shows behind it. Over that time, the band has sold out shows, built a rabid fan base, and earned strong response from Sabbath fans, critics, and fellow musicians.

Their track record reaches well beyond the usual tribute circuit. Sharon and Ozzy Osbourne hand-picked Black Sabbitch to open the inaugural Ozzfiesta. Dave Grohl selected the band to play Cal Jam alongside Foo Fighters and Iggy Pop, after which Foo Fighters shared photos of Black Sabbitch and wrote that they were spellbound.

Black Sabbitch has also played a headlining set at Psycho Las Vegas with The Flaming Lips, Danzig, Ty Segal, and more. Nick Zinner of Yeah Yeah Yeahs chose the band to headline his curated festival Bedrocktoberfest, and Shepard Fairey booked Black Sabbitch to open his Black Sabbath retrospective, Never Say Die.

For special events, the band has also delivered unique one-off collaborations. Peaches joined Black Sabbitch as lead vocalist for a two-night run in Los Angeles.

For buyers, the picture is straightforward: Black Sabbitch is a proven Black Sabbath tribute with festival experience, headlining history, and recognizable booking credits that make them easy to place on rock bills where audience familiarity and tribute credibility matter.
