About

Hang on a sec....we KNOW what a few of you might be thinking.... "Styx's music was all ballads, man. I wanna ROCK!"

The fact is, Styx was one of the most versatile bands of the 70s and 80s, which is one of the main reasons their albums sold so well. "Ballads", "Hard Rock", "Progressive", "Anthemic", and of course "Theatrical" are all terms one could use to describe the Music of Styx.

Short bio

A versatile Styx music profile spanning the band's ballads, hard rock, progressive, anthemic, and theatrical sides from the 1970s and 1980s.

Full press bio

The music of Styx spans far more than ballads. This profile reflects the band's versatility across the 1970s and 1980s, bringing together ballads, hard rock, progressive, anthemic, and theatrical music. That range is a defining part of Styx's sound and a key reason their albums sold so well.

Tagline

The music of Styx, from ballads and progressive rock to hard-rock anthems
