

Cara Lee as Cher

About

The sound of Cara Lee, according to her producer, three-time Grammy Winner Shannon Sanders, is a dynamic mix of "Aretha meets Janis". Add some Tina Turner into the mix, and the result is a voice infused with the heart of the greats, yet still finding its own unique emotional space. Cara Lee has graced stages the world over and sung alongside a list of legends that includes The Righteous Brothers' Bill Medley, Kate Taylor, Albert Lee and iconic producer Peter Asher, who introduces her as "The great Cara Lee." Being a fundamental part of the entertainment community in Los Angeles, Cara Lee continues to share her talent with the world-famous Wrecking Crew, Don Randi's "Quest", The Tribe (LA's greatest singers and musicians), Laurence Juber's "Airfoil"; a staple at the Grammy Museum and a long-time musical contributor on the Time Life/Star Vista's Music cruises. Cara Lee connected with a broader audience when she appeared on The Late Late Show with James Corden, performed at the Super Bowl 50 VIP event and other exclusive celebrity parties.
