

DAVID MARKS, founding member of The Beach Boys

DAVID MARKS, founding member of The Beach Boys performing the Greatest Hits.

David Marks is a founding member of The Beach Boys.

About

David Marks is one of the few remaining original Beach Boys to be performing in 2027. David is the only Beach Boy with a "Greatest Hits" package. David Marks joined The Beach Boys in 1961. David was signed to Capitol Records with The Beach Boys in 1962. He recorded on the first five Beach Boys albums including all of their major early hits. David Marks played guitar and sang on The Beach Boys first nationwide hit "Surfin' Safari" and also on The Beach Boys last nationwide hit "That's Why God Made The Radio" in 2012. David Marks is a member of the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame. With the Surf City Allstars, who are all former touring members of The Beach Boys, David Marks performs "The Greatest Hits of the Beach Boys" in a 90-100 minute show. David's Beach Boys show is great for concerts, corporate events, and private parties.

Short bio

David Marks joined The Beach Boys in 1961, recorded on their first five albums, and performed on major hits including Surfin' Safari. A Rock & Roll Hall of Fame member, he leads a 90-100 minute Greatest Hits of the Beach Boys show with the Surf City Allstars.

Full press bio

David Marks joined The Beach Boys in 1961 and was signed with the band to Capitol Records in 1962. He recorded on their first five albums, played guitar and sang on Surfin' Safari, and performed on the band's last nationwide hit, That's Why God Made the Radio, in 2012. A member of the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame, Marks performs The Greatest Hits of the Beach Boys with the Surf City Allstars, whose members are all former touring members of The Beach Boys. The 90–100 minute show fits concerts, corporate events, and private parties.

Tagline

David Marks brings The Beach Boys' greatest hits to concerts, corporate events, and private parties

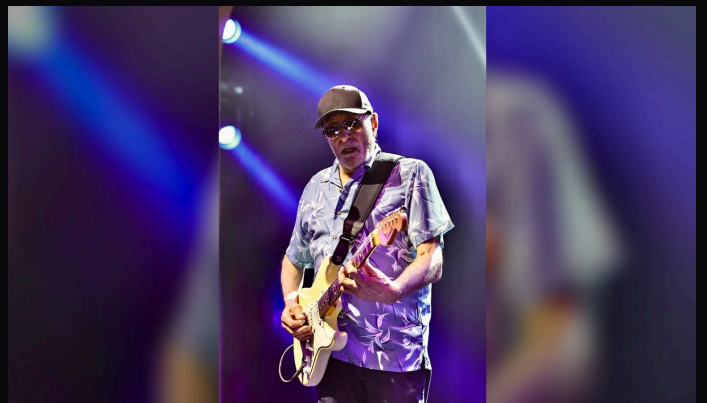

Elevator pitch

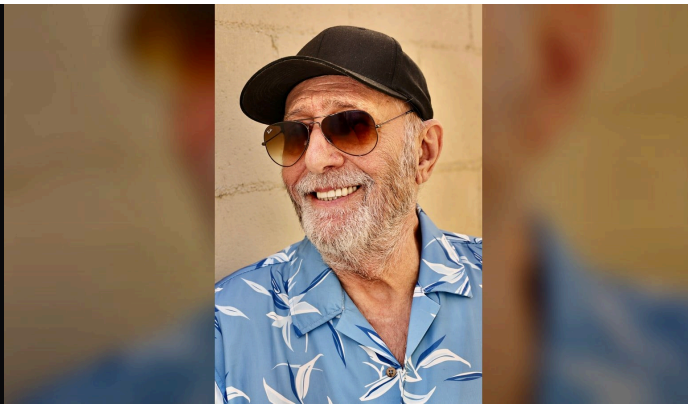

A 90–100 minute Beach Boys greatest-hits show led by original member and Rock & Roll Hall of Fame member David Marks.

Suggested introduction

Please welcome David Marks, founding member of The Beach Boys, with the Surf City Allstars performing The Greatest Hits of the Beach Boys.

Photos

Contact and booking

Booking details and inquiries

View the latest press kit:

<https://workingbands.ai/epk/david-marks-founding-member-of-the-beach-boys>