

DSB

Tribute to Journey

About

DSB is a Tribute to Journey focused on the Steve Perry era, with close attention to the band's signature vocal sound.

Journey's catalog may sound straightforward, but the arrangements are demanding. DSB's five-member lineup is built around recreating that sound authentically, with each musician covering a key part of the band's approach.

The material connects with a broad crowd. Longtime Journey fans span from their 20s to their 60s, and the songs have also picked up younger listeners through TV placements and club remixes.

That wide demographic makes DSB easy to place for mixed-age events. The act is positioned to appeal to both younger and older audiences, with a stage show and onstage presence that play well across crowd types.

From casino shows to family-friendly fairs and festivals, DSB is presented as a strong fit for events that need recognizable Journey material and broad audience appeal.
