About

Echoes of Pink Floyd is a Michigan-based Pink Floyd tribute band with more than two decades of performances across the Midwest. The band recreates the sound and atmosphere of Pink Floyd's music and is known for pairing the show with a laser light production, visuals, and lighting designed to match the material.

The lineup features Jim Alfredson on lead vocals and keys, Tom Beller on bass and vocals, Rich Martin on lead guitar, Jake Zemla on rhythm guitar, lap steel, and auxiliary percussion, Shelby Zemla on vocals, Jason Scott on drums, and Daniel Giacobassi on saxophone and flute.

The live show centers on Pink Floyd's greatest hits and a production approach built around detailed musical parts and strong visual support. For buyers, that means a clearly defined tribute format with recognizable material, an established stage presentation, and a band that has been a repeat draw in the region, including sold-out engagements.

With a long-running focus on Pink Floyd's catalog and a lineup built to cover the band's signature vocals, guitars, keys, saxophone, flute, and percussion textures, Echoes of Pink Floyd offers a tribute set designed for Floyd fans as well as general live music audiences.
