About

HUMAN CLAY – THE PREMIER NATIONAL TOURING CREED TRIBUTE BAND

Reliving the Rise of Creed

Straight out of Central Florida, Human Clay – The Premier National Touring Creed Tribute Band delivers a powerful, high-energy concert experience celebrating the music of one of the defining rock bands of the late '90s and early 2000s.

Human Clay goes beyond simply performing the songs. The band recreates the power, emotion, musicianship, and arena-sized intensity that made Creed a worldwide rock phenomenon. From the opening note to the final encore, audiences are taken back to an era when songs like "Higher," "My Sacrifice," "With Arms Wide Open," "One Last Breath," "My Own Prison," "What's This Life For," and "Are You Ready?" dominated rock radio and packed arenas around the world.

Fronting Human Clay is David Matthew, whose soaring vocals, commanding stage presence, and ability to capture the emotion and intensity of Creed's music provide the centerpiece of the Human Clay experience.

On guitar is Greg Polcari, a seasoned touring musician whose career includes performing as a guitarist and/or backing vocalist with artists and bands including Britny Fox, Steelheart/Steel Dragon, and Florida's own Nova Rex, along with work connected to a guitar remix for Christina Aguilera. Greg brings the massive guitar tones, melodic leads, and crushing riffs essential to recreating Creed's unmistakable sound.

Holding down the low end is Randy Berg, whose thunderous bass lines, precision, and commanding stage presence provide the foundation that drives Human Clay night after night.

Behind the kit is drummer, bandleader, and founding member Jay Morrison. His hard-hitting, energetic playing completes the band's powerful rhythm section and helps give Human Clay its arena-rock impact. Jay was also the architect behind Big Hair Daze, an all-star salute to the '80s glam rock and hair-metal era, and was one of the original founding members of Heartless Wager.

Together, these four musicians have created a show designed to make audiences feel Creed's music—not simply hear it.

THE HUMAN CLAY EXPERIENCE

Human Clay has built its reputation through national touring, professional musicianship, high-energy performances, and an unwavering attention to the sound and emotion of Creed's catalog.

The result is a full-scale, two-hour concert experience built for theaters, casinos, festivals, concert venues, clubs, bike rallies, fairs, and large-scale special events.

Every Human Clay performance is designed around the songs Creed fans came to hear, delivered with the power and authenticity those songs deserve. Massive choruses become audience sing-alongs, guitars fill the room, and the band creates the kind of crowd interaction and energy that turns a tribute show into a true concert experience.

For talent buyers and promoters, Human Clay brings more than a great performance. The band brings national touring experience, professional communication, dependable production coordination, strong promotional support, and a show designed to entertain both dedicated Creed fans and mainstream rock audiences.

As the music of the '90s and early 2000s continues to connect with a new generation while bringing longtime fans back to the songs they grew up with, Human Clay is taking that experience to stages across the country.

Human Clay doesn't just play the music of Creed.

They bring back the sound.
They bring back the emotion.
They bring back the experience.
