

Infinity Project

About

Randy B. Loran formed The Infinity Project, Seattle's Premier Journey Tribute act, in 2013. Like most trained vocalists, Randy has been performing since childhood with multiple choirs, vocal ensembles, theater work, and competitions. He graduated to fronting rock bands at the tender age of 16 and has continued to do so in multiple forms for over 30 years. An experienced studio and live performer, Randy developed his vocal chops at the Seattle-based vocal program 'The Vocalist Studio' in 2008 with coach Robert Lunte. His other projects include his original rock act Seed, Progressive metal band New Skies, Non-Jovi: A Tribute to Bon Jovi, and his self-titled original country act Randy B. Loran.
