

Jay Allan & That's The Way It Is

About

First and foremost a fan, Jay discovered Elvis' music and legend as a teenager and began emulating him. Now a seasoned Elvis Tribute Artist, Jay has performed throughout the US, Caribbean, and Canada for crowds from 30 to 30,000. In addition to casinos in Las Vegas, Atlantic City, Pennsylvania and Mississippi, Jay has performed for community events, fundraisers and even the US Air Force. This 4-10 piece band always Takes Care of Business and you won't find a better Elvis Tribute Band in the USA. The guitarist played with Bill Haley and you can sometimes even catch Elvis' very own trumpet player sitting in.
