

Kings of The Stone Age

About

Kings of the Stone Age is Southern California's premier tribute to Queens of the Stone Age, delivering a raw, high-energy homage to the desert rock pioneers. Emerging from the heart of the Palm Desert Scene, this band channels the hypnotic grooves and gritty riffs that define QOTSA's legacy.

Wikipedia

Formed by a group of seasoned musicians united by their passion for stoner rock, Kings of the Stone Age meticulously recreate the sonic landscapes of QOTSA's expansive catalog. Their performances are a journey through the band's evolution, from the early days of Rated R to the chart-topping hits of Songs for the Deaf and beyond.

Setlist Highlights:

"No One Knows"

"Go With the Flow"

"Little Sister"

"Make It Wit Chu"

"The Way You Used to Do"

"Carnavoyeur"

"A Song for the Dead"

"Emotion Sickness"

"If I Had a Tail"

"Feel Good Hit of the Summer"

Kings of the Stone Age are not just a cover band; they are a celebration of QOTSA's enduring influence on rock music. Their shows are a testament to the power of live performance, capturing the essence of the originals while infusing their own desert-born flair.

Short bio

Kings of the Stone Age is a Southern California tribute to Queens of the Stone Age, recreating the band's gritty riffs, hypnotic grooves, and expansive catalog from Rated R through Songs for the Deaf and beyond.

Full press bio

Kings of the Stone Age is a Southern California tribute to Queens of the Stone Age, delivering a raw, high-energy performance built around the band's gritty riffs and hypnotic grooves. Seasoned musicians recreate QOTSA's expansive catalog, from Rated R through Songs for the Deaf and beyond, with songs including No One Knows, Go With the Flow, Little Sister, Make It Wit Chu, The Way You Used to Do, Carnavoyeur, A Song for the Dead, Emotion Sickness, If I Had a Tail, and Feel Good Hit of the Summer.

Tagline

Southern California tribute to Queens of the Stone Age's desert rock sound

Photos

Contact and booking

Booking details and inquiries

View the latest press kit:

<https://workingbands.ai/epk/kings-of-the-stone-age>