

Landslide

a tribute to Fleetwood Mac

About

Landslide: a tribute to Fleetwood Mac is the #1 Fleetwood Mac tribute in the Midwest, and one of the top Fleetwood Mac tributes in the nation. Taking pride in singing all of their own vocals and playing all of their own instruments live, what you see and hear is real. Giving the audience the total magical feel of a real live show, the style of this show is based mostly on the phenomenal Fleetwood Mac live album 'The Dance.' Hailing from the Kansas City and St. Louis areas, they have been together since 2011. Landslide has played at the annual tribute shows four times at Azura Amphitheater, the largest outdoor concert venue in the Kansas City area, with a capacity of 18,000. They were there for the biggest attended tribute show of 15,000 people.
