

Led Zepplica

A Tribute to Led Zeppelin

About

Led Zepplica is a Led Zeppelin tribute band based in Los Angeles, California, performing as an entity since 1989 at the local, national, and international level. The band is known for a show built around the sound and feel of a live Led Zeppelin performance, with an approach that emphasizes realism and the emotion of the original material.

The lineup uses two professional lead singers in the Robert Plant role, which helps the band maintain a consistent working schedule despite outside touring commitments. Buyers can request either singer based on availability.

Joe Retta of Trans Siberian Orchestra, The Sweet, Dio's Disciples, and Heaven and Earth covers the early Robert Plant range, and the show with him is geared more toward the studio sound of Led Zeppelin. Keith St. John of Montrose, Lynch Mob, and Burning Rain brings the live essence of Robert Plant, allowing the band to emulate Led Zeppelin's concert versions. Led Zepplica also features Lenny Mann as Jimmy Page, Johnny Bruhns of Circa, YOSO, and Roundabout as John Paul Jones, and Darryl Johnson as John Henry Bonham.

The band has been booked by buyers across the United States and internationally, with performances in Hawaii, most of the continental US, Russia, Canada, Mexico, Chile, and India. They have performed as a headliner in front of thousands, giving buyers a long-running tribute act with an established track record on larger stages.
