

Live and let die: The Music of Paul McCartney

About

When Beatles producer, Sir George Martin, tells you that "You sound like Paul McCartney" and Paul McCartney himself comments that "You are a great musician".....what more is there to say! The critically-acclaimed show 'Live and Let Die' featuring Tony Kishman, veteran of the Broadway smash hit musical "Beatlemania", is a dynamic full multimedia Concert Production that has set high performance standards as it celebrates the music of Paul McCartney. Hailed by the media as "The Quintessential Paul McCartney" – Tony has performed to audiences worldwide and is regarded by "Beatlemaniacs" as the world's best McCartney look-alike/sound-alike and with an amazing line-up of world class musicians; the show continues to gather glowing reviews and sell out major venues across the US. With state-of-the-art sound, lighting, and a note-perfect, visually accurate recreation, you'll hear hit songs from the Beatles catalog and Paul McCartney's solo works including: 'Hey Jude', 'Jet', 'Penny Lane', 'Live And Let Die', 'Yesterday', 'Eleanor Rigby', 'My Love', 'Let It Be', 'Maybe I'm Amazed', 'Got to Get You Into My Life', 'Silly Love Songs' and many more... Tony Kishman never fails to have enthusiastic sell-out crowds on their feet receiving countless standing ovations from the first song to the last. crowd_edited.jpg "Tony Kishman is Sir Paul McCartney in his look, body language and commitment to his music." – Dennis J. D'Amico, Executive producer of Paul McCartney "Watching Tony Kishman perform as Paul McCartney is as close as you can get to seeing Sir Paul himself." – Danny Heller, Gayle Force Enterprises "Tony Kishman is the quintessential Paul McCartney." – The Long Island Advance. "I can't imagine a better interpreter of the music of Paul McCartney than Tony Kishman. Tony is a total pro: consistently reliable, great collaborator, excellent musician and great entertainer. It's always a pleasure to watch him wow the audience." – Michael Krajewski, Music Director
