

Michael Mori - Michael Jackson

tribute artist

Get ready to "Remember the Time" – and relive the legacy of the King of Pop!

About

Michael Mori is a Michael Jackson tribute artist based in Las Vegas with more than 16 years of experience. His show is built around the music, movement, and visual style associated with MJ, making it a clear fit for corporate events, private parties, fundraisers, weddings, festivals, theaters, and galas.

The performance draws from well-known Michael Jackson material including Billie Jean, Thriller, Smooth Criminal, Beat It, Man in the Mirror, and Black or White. The act features choreography, costumes, and a performance style centered on recreating the feel of Michael Jackson's live presence for audiences who want recognizable songs and a familiar tribute format.

Michael has performed on stages across the country, including a run in Las Vegas in the Evolution Show at the New Orleans Hotel and Casino. He also appeared in New York's Invincible: The Glorious Michael Jackson Tribute Show.

Booking options range from intimate solo appearances to larger productions with backup dancers, custom lighting, and sound. That makes the act adaptable for buyers who need anything from a compact featured set to a full concert-style presentation. Michael Mori is available for private parties, weddings, corporate events and conferences, fundraisers, community events, themed events, holiday shows, team building performances, opening slots, and full-show bookings.

For buyers looking for a Michael Jackson tribute with established stage experience and flexible show formats, Michael Mori offers a straightforward MJ-focused act that can be scaled to suit the event.
