About

Miranda Ramos & The Miranda Ramos Band – Artist Bio

Miranda Ramos is an award-winning singer and San Diego Music Award (SDMA) nominee known for her powerhouse vocals, heartfelt performances, and unwavering passion for country music. Hailing from San Diego, CA, Miranda has been singing professionally for most of her life, captivating audiences with a voice that's both soulful and distinctly country.

A lifelong fan of country music, Miranda brings authenticity and energy to every performance, blending classic influences with a fresh, modern sound. Her band, The Miranda Ramos Band, showcases her original material alongside crowd favorites, creating dynamic live shows that highlight her vocal talent and commanding stage presence.

Also available as an acoustic duet, Miranda offers a more intimate version of her act—perfect for smaller venues, special events, or settings where a stripped-down performance is preferred.

In addition to her country roots, Miranda also showcases her versatility as a lead vocalist in ALT2K, a popular '90s/2000s cover band that brings nostalgia to life with energetic performances of hits from the era.

Whether fronting her full band, performing as an acoustic duet, or rocking out with ALT2K, Miranda Ramos continues to make her mark as one of San Diego's most compelling and accomplished performers
