

Missus Jones

About

Missus Jones is an electrifying Amy Winehouse Tribute band dedicated to celebrating the incredible talent and legacy of the late British singer-songwriter, Amy Winehouse. The band takes its name from one of Amy's most popular songs, "Me & Mr. Jones," and is made up of a group of highly skilled musicians and vocalists who share a deep admiration for her unique voice, soulful style, and poignant songwriting.

Missus Jones brings Amy's timeless hits to life on stage, including classics like "Rehab," "Back to Black," "Valerie," "Tears Dry on Their Own," and many more. Their performances transport the audience back in time, allowing them to relive the brilliance of one of the greatest voices in modern music history.

Not only does Missus Jones focus on delivering exceptional musical performances, but they also pay homage to Amy Winehouse's unique style and fashion sense. From the beehive hairstyle and cat-eye eyeliner to her retro-inspired outfits, the band recreates Amy's iconic look, adding an extra layer of authenticity to their tribute.

Whether performing at intimate venues or large music festivals, Missus Jones never fails to create an electric atmosphere that celebrates the legacy of Amy Winehouse. Their dedication and passion for her music shine through in every note, ensuring that the spirit of Amy's artistry continues to touch the hearts of fans worldwide.
