

Rockabilly Love Cats

About

The Rockabilly Love Cats started out by receiving a call from a friend that needed an opening band. They killed it. After their show's amazing turnout, the band was booked out 6 months. They were then asked to play live on the Vinyl Avenger radio show, rocking the airwaves for close to 2 hours. After the release of their first album 'Two Left Feet,' the Love Cats were nominated for several Sammie awards. Ivan (vocals, guitar), Brett (bass), and Rob (electric guitar on a Gretsch white falcon hollowbody) bring a classic rockabilly sound to every performance.

Short bio

The Rockabilly Love Cats are a three-piece featuring Ivan on vocals and guitar, Brett on bass, and Rob on electric guitar. Their classic rockabilly sound has led to six months of bookings, a Vinyl Avenger radio appearance, and several Sammie award nominations.
