

Slippery When Wet

About

Slippery When Wet is a Bon Jovi tribute band that features Jason Morey as the lead singer. The band earned its reputation as one of the best Bon Jovi tribute acts in the world and was officially authorized by Bon Jovi Management, allowing them to use the band's name and likeness for their performances.

Slippery When Wet, took its name from Bon Jovi's iconic 1986 album, which included hits like "Livin' on a Prayer," "You Give Love a Bad Name," and "Wanted Dead or Alive." Like the original Bon Jovi, Slippery When Wet focused on delivering high-energy performances that captured the spirit and essence of the legendary rock band.

Jason Morey, known for his remarkable vocal abilities and stage presence, played the role of Jon Bon Jovi in the tribute act. He worked tirelessly to recreate Bon Jovi's distinctive voice and charisma, ensuring that audiences experienced a show that felt like witnessing the real band in action.

Slippery When Wet aim to replicate Bon Jovi's live concerts with precision, including the look, sound, and performance style. This dedication to authenticity makes them a favorite among Bon Jovi fans, allowing them to perform in various venues, festivals, and events around the world.
