

Street Fighter

About

Established in 1978, Streetfighter was conceived to capture the music, spirit, and look of the world's greatest rock and roll band — the Rolling Stones — with period-correct clothing and songs spanning three major eras: the 1964-68 blues and psychedelia era, the 1969-73 revolutionary period, and from 1973 to the present. The band has appeared at venues including The Meadowbrook Musical Arts Center in New Hampshire, the Guinness Brewery in Dublin, Ireland, the MGM Grand in Las Vegas, and The Broadmoor in Colorado Springs. Front man Pete VerEecke is described as a Jagger extraordinaire.
