About

The Earth Wind & Fire Experience featuring the Ray Howard Band

Since 2014, The Ray Howard Band has captivated audiences with their dynamic blend of R&B, soul, and funk — and at the heart of their musical journey has always been a deep reverence for the legendary Earth, Wind & Fire. In 2016, that admiration evolved into a full-fledged tribute show, and ever since, the band has become widely celebrated for delivering one of the most authentic Earth, Wind & Fire experiences in the country.

From the moment the music starts, The Ray Howard Band brings to life the unmistakable sights and sounds of Earth, Wind & Fire's greatest hits — from "September" to "Let's Groove" and everything in between. Frontman Ray Howard's incredible vocal ability captures the soaring falsetto and emotional nuance of Phillip Bailey, while the powerhouse vocals of Mr. Eric Moore bring the bold, soulful energy reminiscent of Maurice White. Backed by a full ensemble of world-class musicians, the group flawlessly recreates the complex arrangements and vibrant spirit that define Earth, Wind & Fire's timeless sound.

Praised for their authenticity and musicianship, The Ray Howard Band doesn't just play the music — they channel it. Their tribute show has become a consistent sell-out at venues across the country, often receiving standing ovations, encore requests, and repeat bookings. With show lengths ranging from 90 minutes to two hours, fans are transported back to the golden era of the 1970s and '80s, when Earth, Wind & Fire ruled the charts and filled stadiums.
