MALO

MALO is one of the most successful and enduring Latin rock bands in the world. In the year 2021 they celebrated their 50th anniversary. their biggest hit "Suavecito" reached no. #18 on the billboard charts in April of 1972. They have played all over the world and have performed on the same bill as the Rolling Stones and Queen. Malo has 10 albums to their credit and continues to tour. They have recorded a live album "Latin Legends Live".

CANNIBAL AND THE HEADHUNTERS

CANNIBAL AND THE HEADHUNTERS has a spectacular beginning within a few months of the group's conception. The groundbreaking Rock & Roll anthem "Land of a 1000 Dances" owns its own space in the tale of the history of Rock & Roll. The repetitive line "Na, Na, Na, Na Na" is embedded in the minds and hearts of Rock & Roll fans worldwide, 58 recording artists worldwide have covered the vocal riff and anthem created by Cannibal Frankie Garcia. The Band Continues to tour and is a Rock and Roll Staple in concert venues.

THEE MIDNITERS

Having been nominated in 1965 for a Grammy Award for their number one hit "Whittier Boulevard", THEE

MIDNITERS have enjoyed tremendous success from 1965 through 1969, opening for such heavies as The Doors, Hermans Hermits, Steppenwolf, and many Motown artists. They were one of the first Latino rock and roll groups among others from East Los Angeles to achieve national acclaim. THEE MIDNITERS have performed at many world-class entertainment venues
