About

The Little Monsters Tribute to Lady Gaga is a Midwest-based tribute act focused on delivering a staged Lady Gaga show with live performance, choreography, replica costumes, dancers, and production elements drawn from Gaga's visual world. Since their debut at Summerfest '21, they have performed at music venues, casinos, resorts, and festivals across the region.

The show is built as a theatrical tribute rather than a standard cover set. It features a troupe of professional dancers, handcrafted high-fidelity replica costumes inspired by Gaga's most recognizable looks, and stage props designed to support the visual side of the performance. Synchronized lighting, video backdrops, and large-format effects are part of the presentation described in their current show format.

Musically, the set centers on well-known Lady Gaga material including Poker Face, Just Dance, Born This Way, Shallow, and Bad Romance, along with additional fan favorites. Choreography is tailored to the songs, with fast costume changes and tightly timed dance routines keeping the show moving from start to finish.

For buyers, the appeal is straightforward: this is a dedicated Gaga tribute with a clear theme, recognizable repertoire, and a production-minded format that fits audiences looking for a pop tribute built around both the music and the visuals.
