

The Luther Vandross Experience featuring Darron Moore

The Luther Vandross Experience featuring Darron Moore

About

The Luther Vandross Experience featuring Darron Moore is a live tribute to the music, romance, and legacy of Luther Vandross.

Led by vocalist and recording artist Darron Moore, the production features soulful vocals, rich harmonies, and accomplished musicians performing familiar favorites including Never Too Much, Superstar, A House Is Not a Home, Here and Now, and Dance with My Father.

The show moves from upbeat dance favorites to romantic ballads, giving audiences opportunities to dance, sing along, and connect with the songs that made Luther Vandross a beloved voice.

The standard live production features four vocalists and six to seven professional musicians. Booking options include a 90-minute concert or two 45-minute sets by arrangement, with additional performance configurations available for different venues, audiences, and event requirements.

The production is suited to casinos and showrooms, theaters, performing arts centers, festivals, corporate events, conventions, dinner shows, nightclubs, weddings, anniversaries, private celebrations, and special engagements.

Based in Detroit, Michigan, with lead vocalist Darron Moore also based in Atlanta, Georgia, The Luther Vandross Experience is available for national and international engagements.
