

The Purple Generation

The Purple Generation: A Prince tribute celebrating his timeless hits

About

Based in Los Angeles, California, The Purple Generation was founded in 2025 by singer, songwriter, and music producer Honore. With a music career that has taken him around the world, performing for audiences in numerous countries, Honore now channels his lifelong admiration for Prince by stepping into the role of the legendary performer himself. Inspired since childhood, Honore considers this tribute both an honor and a dream come true.

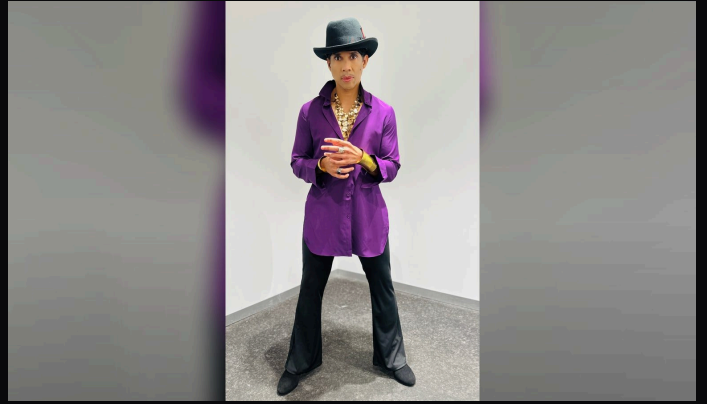

The Purple Generation brings Prince's music to life with an electrifying, high-energy performance that never fails to get audiences moving. From the moment the band steps onto the stage, the crowd is on its feet, dancing and singing along. Their setlist features Prince's most beloved hits alongside deeper cuts that true fans can fully appreciate, creating a show that feels both familiar and refreshingly unexpected.

Audiences agree that The Purple Generation delivers on every level. As one fan declared after a recent performance: "That was incredible! I would have paid $150 for a ticket to a show that's THAT good!" With energy, authenticity, and passion fueling every note, the band captures the magic and legacy of Prince in a way that leaves fans exhilarated and smiling long after the show ends.

Available for corporate parties, summer series concerts, music festivals, and venues looking for a band that can truly bring the heat, The Purple Generation is the whole package. More than just a tribute, this is a full-scale celebration of Prince's artistry, ensuring his music continues to inspire and move generations for years to come.
