About

Richard DeSimone (Frank Sinatra) has been performing as the legendary FRANK SINATRA since 1996. Originally hailing from the Bronx, NYC, Rich was involved in music since the second grade where he was a member of the boys choir at St. Lucy's School. He performed with this group at Carnegie Hall for a special performance. Rich played guitar and sang with his church folk group for several years. Desiring to try his hand at theatre, Rich performed for several community theatre productions of My Fair Lady, The Music Man, Fiddler on the Roof, Little Mary Sunshine and Gilbert & Sullivan's The H.M.S. Pinafore. After his move to Pennsylvania, Rich began performing as Frank Sinatra.

Rich tries to bring to life the sound and look of Sinatra through the use of singing style, dress, and mannerisms. His Frank Sinatra Show can currently be seen at nine locations monthly in and around the Philadelphia area and at a host of country clubs as well.

Phil Solis (Dean Martin) started his career in entertainment on a radio show called "Dr. Demento" KMET Los Angeles, Ca. There he would create and sing comedic tunes such as "The Ballad of the Rat" After obtaining a Bachelor of Arts degree in Theater, Phil would find himself working at big name studios in Hollywood such as Universal and Disney. Years of professional vocal training and dedicated stage experience made Phil master at his craft. With performances all across the United States and being featured in several films as a Dean Martin impersonator. Today Phil brings to life the greatest hits from Dean Martin and loves to bring joy to hearts of those who attend his shows.

Alfredo Miller (Sammy Davis Jr.) An accomplished actor, singer and tapper with over 25 years of experience, Alfredo has been hailed as the "best all around entertainer portraying Sammy Davis Jr." A proud member of all four professional actors unions, including the Screen Actors Guild and Actors Equity, Alfredo has performed a variety of roles from the stage to the screen
