

Wanted Man

Tribute to RATT

About

Wanted Man is a Los Angeles-based tribute band focused on Ratt and the Sunset Strip hard rock sound of the 1980s. Their set is built to recreate that era's mix of glam, grit, and hard-driving sleaze-rock energy in a format that is easy for buyers to place and easy for audiences to recognize.

Frontman Michael Hernandez leads the show with a wide vocal range and the snarling attitude associated with the genre's best-known singers. His stage presence is a central part of the performance, giving the set the swagger and edge expected from a Ratt tribute.

Behind him, the band is built around the key elements of the style: dual-guitar attack, a hard-hitting rhythm section, and tight recreations of familiar songs. The result is a straight-ahead tribute show centered on the sound, look, and feel of the decade that made Sunset Strip hard rock a global phenomenon.

For buyers looking for a clear-format tribute act, Wanted Man offers a focused Ratt homage with a recognizable lane, era-specific performance style, and a band setup designed to deliver the songs with precision and energy.
