Full press bio

Zepparella is an all-female American hard rock tribute band dedicated to the music of Led Zeppelin. The lineup features vocalist Anna Kristina, guitarist Gretchen Menn, bassist Holly West, and founding member drummer Clementine, who has toured the US and Europe throughout her career. Anna Kristina is known for the band's 15 million-view When The Levee Breaks video. Gretchen Menn studied classical guitar under a student of Andres Segovia before discovering Led Zeppelin and has loved Jimmy Page's playing longer than she has played guitar. Zepparella explores improvised magic within the framework of Zeppelin's mighty songs.
